

Earnhardt Auto Centers Breaks Ground on New Chevrolet Dealership in Queen Creek

QUEEN CREEK, Ariz., November 6, 2023 (NewsWire.com) - On November 6th at 10:00 a.m., Earnhardt Auto Centers broke ground on its new Earnhardt Chevrolet dealership in Queen Creek, AZ. Expected to be completed by (Summer) 2024, this 70,000 sqft facility will be located near the intersection of Cloud & Ellsworth Road.

“With this new store, the Earnhardt family is proud to offer the dynamic Chevrolet brand and historic ‘No Bull’ way of doing business to Queen Creek community,” said Derby Earnhardt, Dealer Principal and long-time resident of Queen Creek. “We’ll bring a new car shopping experience as well as good jobs and community outreach to this incredible town.”

As a full-service store, Earnhardt Chevrolet in Queen Creek will feature a stylish state-of-the-art showroom with modern amenities for shoppers. A modern service department will have well equipped service bays and a staff of accredited Chevrolet technicians. A large parts store will offer Chevrolet parts, GM Accessories, and a full selection of tires along with an array of maintenance services capable of servicing virtually any make or model of vehicle!

“The Earnhardt family welcomes the many high-tech changes in the automotive industry,” said Christopher Kerr, Earnhardt’s VP of Marketing. “The Chevrolet brand is an excellent example of automotive progress, including the electrification of many of its most popular models.”

He noted that the Equinox EV, Blazer EV and Chevy Bolt offer family choices while the Silverado EV will be the best electric truck for businesses. Most recently, the Chevrolet Corvette E-Ray has entered the electric marketplace as a high-end sports car.

“Of course, Chevrolet’s backbone is its popular SUV lineup, midsize Colorado truck, and full-size Silverado,” said Jason Gourd, General Manager. “We look forward to bringing these quality vehicles to our new location in Queen Creek.” Information about this impressive new dealership will be posted (as updated are made available) on www.EarnhardtChevrolet.com/QueenCreek.

When completed, the new Chevrolet dealership is expected to employ more than 110 people for its sales, service, parts, and financing staff. Earnhardt Auto Centers is already a large employer in the Phoenix AZ area, providing more than 2,000 jobs across the region.
